

I am a retired Chicago Police Officer with 30 yrs of service. I have been trained in public speaking and public administration while serving with the department I worked for the National Basketball Assoc. as a security representative to ensure that NBA protocols involving players, coaches, and referees were followed, Currently I am retired and involved with managing various social groups within the city of Chicago.